

Chicago Cycling Club October Ride Schedule

Ride Line: 773-509-8093

Saturday, October 04, 2008

Social Ride: Illinois Solar Energy Association Tour

REMOTE START: 1113 W. Webster, Chicago
10:00 AM

22 miles, 10 to 14 mph
We will visit private homes willing to show their solar energy equipment during the Illinois Solar Energy Association Tour. We will also visit one commercial solar thermal system at Taco Burrito King (5413 W Belmont Ave) and purchase lunch (optional) before turning back. The ride leader requests that riders wear helmets. R.S.V.P. requested. Limit 6 persons, with members of Chicago Cycling Club getting preference. Bring locks and chains. Contact Kathy Schubert at (773) 248-5499 at their home and circles around through low-traffic country roads and rolling hills back to Port Washington. Port Washington is north of Milwaukee, about a two-hour drive from Chicago. For driving directions, go to <http://chicagocyclingclub.org/rides/RideInfo/tourdebeer.htm>. Please give Kate a call if you are planning on attending so we don't start the ride without you! Contact Kate Fiacchino at (262) 268-0610

Saturday, October 18, 2008

Social Ride: Beans and Bagels Ride in Lincoln Square

REMOTE START: Golden Nugget at Ravenswood and Lawrence, 4747 N Ravenswood
3:00 PM 10 miles, 8 to 10 mph
We will tour the neighborhood of Lincoln Square, its beautiful homes and finish with sandwiches at Beans and Bagels on Rockwell. Contact Julie Hochstadter at (773) 965-3396

Sunday, October 05, 2008

Social Ride: Fifth Annual Football Nostalgia Tour

START: Clock Tower at Waveland and Lake Shore Dr. (3700N)
8:30 AM 35 miles, 12 to 14 mph
We will visit the sites both past and present of Chicago's football teams. These include the ever popular Chicago Bears, the now defunct Chicago Cardinals as well as the University of Chicago Maroons. Places to be visited include Wrigley Field, Soldier Field, Old Comiskey Park, Old Stagg Field, New Stagg Field, and Old Chicago Stadium (Yes, Pro Football was once played there.) Lunch will be at the Goose Island Brewery. Contact Joe Dickstein at (773) 262-0031

Sunday, October 26, 2008

Social Ride: Fall Picnic Ride

REMOTE START: Clock Tower, Addison and Lake Shore Drive
10:00 AM 30 miles, 12 to 15 mph
Come celebrate the changing of the seasons by joining the Chicago Cycling Club on our annual end-of-season Picnic Ride! Jim Adgate leads us on a scenic trip through Chicago's North Side and the Northern suburbs. We'll stop along the North Branch Trail in the Harms Woods Forest. This is a pot luck affair so bring something yummy to share. Please email Jim your food or drink selections or quickie mart intentions. There will be at least one trailer provided to help carry supplies and food. This ride is contingent on weather - in the event of rain, it will be cancelled. We will schedule to return between 3:00 and 4:00 at the Clock Tower. Contact Jim Adgate at (773) 551-8242

Saturday, October 11, 2008

Touring Ride: Fall Color Tour

REMOTE START: 225 S. High Street, Port Washington, WI
10:00 AM 40 miles, 14 to 16 mph
Come up to Wisconsin and check out the fall colors, the modest hills make for some great views along the way. Join CCC's northernmost members, Kate and Steve Fiacchino, on a rambling tour of Wisconsin's scenic Ozaukee County. The ride starts in Port Washington, WI

New rides are being added all the time!
For an up-to-date schedule, or a look at the rest of the season, go to:
www.chicagocyclingclub.org!